

THE BPTC SENIOR MOOTING COMPETITION 2019

ROUND 1 ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear Moot Entrants,

Congratulations on being selected and thank-you for all the work and careful consideration that you put into your applications. The details of your moot are below. You can contact your fellow team-members and opponents via their City email addresses. Save for Tony Ostrin, all the judges should be sent the exchange documents via their City email addresses.

The rules are attached below. Please note, in particular, rules 7 – 11, in relation to exchange of documents and the submission period (for round 1 there is a single date for all documents to be exchanged and emailed to the judges which is the same for all competitors regardless of the dates of their moots). Any problems regarding this please contact me know asap.

The final round of the moot will be judged by The Rt Hon Lord Gill (Lord President and Lord Justice General of Scotland (retired 2015) and Panel Member of the UK Supreme Court (retired 2017)) and The Hon Sir Stephen Silber (Judge of the High Court of England and Wales (Queen's Bench Division) 1999 – 2014 (authorised to sit in the High Court and Court of Appeal since retirement)). Sir Stephen Silber is kindly drafting the moot problem. It should be available on the mooting section of Moodle before 24 December.

Each moot-judge will select one person to go through into the next round. The moot will last no longer than one hour and arrangements can be made via the Gray's Inn Place office to re-arrange classes in the event of the timing of the moot coinciding with any other events in your law school timetables.

All the very best for the competition and I hope that you will find it to be a valuable experience.
